

OLYMPUS – THE HOME OF GODS

Mount Olympus – Dion, Full day excursion.

Enjoy a day that combines Greek Mythology, archeology and a walk around the amazing landscape of Mount Olympus, the home of Gods.

09:00 – After breakfast, pick up from hotel and the tour starts.

We will first visit Dion’s museum and archeological place, an ancient site were Zeus, the father of Gods, was honored. The ancient theater of Dion was built at (221-179 B.C) from Phillip E’, King of Macedonia, and is active while every summer is hosting the annually Olympus festival. It is considered to have the best acoustic after the ancient theatre of Epidaurus.

After, we continue to Olympus mountain via Litochoro village where is located at the foot of Mount Olympus, to the Prionia area at 1100m altitude where the Enipeas river has its 3 vast sources and you can see the falls.

According the ancient mythology this is where the 7 muses used to wash their hair.

During the journey we will stop at all the important place of interest, such as the monastery of Ag. Dionysios built at (1534-1542).

Visitors will enjoy the fresh mountain air and admire the natural beauty.

There will be free time for coffee and lunch.

At the end of the lunch, in the afternoon, we return to our hotel filled with experiences and knowledge of the ancient Greek mythology and history.
