Athens Treasure Hunt

Activity description

The group is divided in teams of 8-10 players.

Each player will receive a “survival kit” including a map and several props related to the game.

Kits also include a water bottle and a sweet treat.

The objective of the game is for each team to complete challenges that will:

A/ Lead them to the next point of the game

B/ Give them winning tokens (Pieces of ancient Greek columns)

Specialized guides will be escorting the teams making sure they will not get lost but also to add an extra fun element to the game.

Specialized facilitators will be meeting the teams at specified meeting points.

Challenges will include among others:

- Form your team (Team name, slogan and flag)
- Decide on needed roles and distribute them (leader, photographer, navigator etc.)
- Coordinate and work effectively with your team to fulfil tasks
- Navigate through the city following clues and a map

Physical activity level: Medium

Duration: 3-4 hrs

*Final duration depends on the activities/challenges selected.

The game and challenges can be customized according to the special interest or field of the group.

Starting Point: Acropolis or Syntagma area

Ending Point: Monastiraki/Plaka area

Game finale: Teams will place the slices of columns won to their base. The team with the tallest column wins!
